The daily use of these lozenges will soon tell in a much improved condition of the general health, better complexion, sweeter breath and purer blood, and the beauty of it is that no possible harm can result from their continued use, but on the contrary, great benefit.

A Buffalo physician, in speaking of the benefits of charcoal says: "I advise Stuart's Absorbent Lozenges to all patients suffering from gas in the stomach and bowels, and it clears the complexion and purifies the breath, mouth and throat. I also believe the liver is greatly benefited by the daily use of them; they cost but twenty-five cents a box at drug stores, and although in some sense a patent preparation, yet I believe I get move and better charcoal in Suart's Absorbent Lozenges than in any of the ordinary charyout tablets."

WASHINGTON TEA AT STAUNTON, VA.

The Young Waitresses Were Gowned in the Fashion of Colonial Days.

George Washington tea, which was given Wednesday evening by the ladies of Emmanuel Episcopal Church at the Shenandoah Cafe, proved the most delightful church social held in this city for years. The spacious room was tastefully decorated with bunting, while here and there around the walls were hanging the photographs of the great and noble George tographs of the great and noble deorge Washington and members of his family. The feature of the evening were the costumes of the young lady waitresses, who were gowned in old colonial style. These young ladies were Misses Mary

A SNIPPING PARTY

Verse Makers at Weldon Have an Opportunity to Shine.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) WELDON, N. C., February 14.-Miss Annie Carrett gave a "snipping party" at Annie Garrett gave a "snipping party" at her home on Third Street Thursday night to a large number of her friends, and the occasion was most enjoyable. To the usinitiated, a "snipping party" is a social affair in which a number of prizes are strung around the room from a small rope. The "snipper" is blindfolded, given a pair of shears, turned around in the center of the room several times, and then he or she goes forth to "snip" a prize. The invitations are sent out in verse or poetry. The replies must all be in original jingles called poetry. Miss Garrett's party was a brilliant success, in which some of Weldon's local talent had a splendid opportunity to shine, as the replies received were all read out aloud.

Mrs. Walker Scott's Delightful Recep tion on Thursday Evening-Mrs. E. W. Venable Entertains a Few Friends at Supper.

(Special to The Times-Disputch.) FARMVILLE, VA., Feb. 14.—The local chapter of the Phi Sigma Delta Fraternity gave an elaborate banquet last Monnity gave an elaborate banquet last Monday night in honor of its two new members, Messrs. F. L. Verser and B. E. Williams. The pride the fraternity feit in the new members was manifested in various ways and was forcibly bestowed and impressed upon them. Mr. R. L. Baldwin, representing the fraternity, delivered the welcoming address, and in his discourse he painted the fraternity's history from the date of its organization in 1898. He made special mention of the Sorority, complimenting it in the highest extent, and upon closing his remarks he referred in glowing terms of the fraternity's present condition, pronouncing it flourishing and progressive. The responses of the new members were received with great applause.

The hall, which has recently undergone many changes, presented a scene of uncommon beauty. Each table was ornamented with cut flowers and fraternity flags; and upon the canopy which overspreads the court of arms was a knitted weath of carnations, the fraternity flower suspended by chocolate and gold ribbons, and as a center-piece a seven-pointed star and inscribed thereupon "Welcome." day night in honor of its two new mem-

Crystal Wedding of Mr. and Mrs. Morgan a Notably Brilliant Occasion,

Brilliant Occasion,

(Special to the Times-Dispatch,)
FAYETTEVILLE, N. C., Feb. 14.—The has been years since the people of Fayetteville enjoyed so striking and brilliant a social function as that to which they were bidden on Tuesday evening on the occasion of the crystal wedding of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Morgan. The abode in the city is so well filted for the exercise of a bounteous and cultured hospitality as their imposing mansion in the suburb of Haymouth, situated in extensive ornamental grounds, through which wind broad drive-ways, its spacious rooms and halls, which last night were radiant with chandeliers, successive scenic pictures of tasteful groups of evergeons, exotic plants and flowers. The scheme of decoration in the receiving parlors was crimson, and in the dining-room was of pink carnations and Ea France roses; the creams were moulded in the form of roses, and the cakes stamped with the monogram "M." Dughl, of Raleigh, was catterer of the supper, and the orchestra music, very delightful, was rendered by La Vine bund of Raleigh harpers. There were many out of town guests, among whom were Misses Joniths and Maud lections, both the plano and violin being used, and the audience gave evidence of its appreciation by warmly applauding every number. The college this season contains a great deal of excellent talent and the musical department has two organizations, the College Chorus and the College Orchestra, which do themselves great credit, whenever they participate in an entertainment.

Miss Martha Ashton Franklin, of this city, was the guest of honor a few evenings since at a card party, given at the home of her relatives, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. B. Bausman, at their home in Lancaster, Pa., where she is visiting. There were forty guests present. Handsome prizes were awarded and a luncheon, some prizes were awarded and a luncheon, Miss Alice M. ## HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS

FOR POOR DIGESTION.

Diseases of the stomach or other organs of digestion will prevent the proper digestion and assimilation of the food. Thus the strength and value of it is lost, and the patient loses flesh. The blood also becomes impure, the nerves weak and the bowels constipated. To cure stomach disorders you cannot find a better medicine than Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. During its 50 years' experience it has never failed in cases of NAUSEA, BELCHING, FLATULENCY, HEAD= ACHE, INDIGESTION, DYSPEPSIA, CONSTIPA= TION or GENERAL DEBILITY. It is, therefore, deserving of a trial. Try it to-day. You'll be thankful for the advice. It cured these persons and certainly won't fail you!
